

Mosquito Fish

Mosquito fish (Gambusia affinis) are not native to Arizona. They can be used affectively to control mosquito breeding in backyard habitats such as ponds, pools, fountains, cisterns, barrels, etc.

They should NOT be introduced into natural water habitats, however, as they can be detrimental to native fish species.

Please fill-in the form below if you plan to use Gambusia for mosquito control.

DATE: _____

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CITY: _____ ZIP: _____

CONTACT NUMBER: _____

SOURCE TO BE TREATED:

☐ POOL ☐ POND ☐ FOUNTAIN ☐ OTHER: _____

GAMBUSIA GIVEN:

☐ 6 Fish ☐ 8 Fish ☐ 12 Fish ☐ Other: _____

Vector Control Employee: _____

COMMENTS:
